The above petition and extension of stay have been approved. The status of the named foreign worker(s) in this classification is valid as indicated above. The foreign worker(s) can work for the petitioner, but only as detailed in the petition and for the period authorized. Changes in employment or training may require you to file a new Form I-129 petition. Please contact the IRS with any questions about tax withholding.

The petitioner should keep the upper portion of this notice. The lower portion should be given to the worker. He or she should keep the right part with his or her form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record. The I-94 portion should be given to the U.S. Customs and Border Patrol when he or she leaves the United States. The left part is for his or her records. A person granted an extension of stay who leaves the U.S. must normally obtain a new visa before returning. The left part can be used in applying for the new visa. NOTICE DATE March 18, 2013	PAGE 1 of 2
WILLIAM ILHYUN JANG 314 E HIGHLAND MALL BLVD 406 AUSTIN TX 78752		Notice Type: Approval Notice Class: C09P Valid from 03/14/2013 to 03/13/2014

Your application for employment authorization and advance parole has been approved. The form I-766, Employment Authorization Document with I-512 endorsement, will be sent to you separately. The Form I-766 with I-512 endorsement is issued to you, as a matter of USCIS discretion, on the basis of your pending application for adjustment of status, Form I-485.

Please read this notice carefully, as it provides important information concerning use of the Form I-766 with I-512 endorsement.

The Form I-766 with I-512 endorsement is valid until the date specified on the form. If the Form I-766 expires before there is a final decision on your Form I-485, you may file for a new Form I-766.

If any information on the card is incorrect, please write the office listed below. Include your Form I-766, a photocopy of this notice, and evidence to support the necessary correction.

EVIDENCE OF EMPLOYMENT AUTHORIZATION: At any time before the expiration date shown on the Form I-766, you may present the Form I-766 to any employer as evidence that you are authorized to accept employment. 8 CFR 274a.2(b)(1)(v)(A)(4).

EVIDENCE OF ADVANCE PAROLE: The Form I-766 with I-512 endorsement is also evidence that, while your Form I-485 remains pending, you may travel abroad without abandoning your Form I-485. 8 CFR 245.2(a)(4)(ii)(B).

Presentation of the Form I-766 with I-512 endorsement will authorize a transportation line to accept you on board for travel to the United States without liability under section 273 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), provided that you arrive in the United States on or before the expiration date shown on the Form I-766.

The Form I-766 with I-512 endorsement is valid for multiple applications for parole into the United States until the Form I-766 expires. Each parole period shall not exceed one year from the date of the parole at the port of entry.

NOTICE- READ BEFORE YOU TRAVEL ABROAD

Parole into the United States is not guaranteed. In all cases, you are still subject to immigration inspection at a port of entry to determine whether you are eligible to come into the United States via the terms of this advance parole. The fact that USCIS approved your application for advance parole does not prevent the Department of Homeland Security, in the exercise of discretion, from refusing to parole you into the United States, if the Department determines that parole no longer serves the public interest of the United States.

Parole into the United States is not an "admission." If your Form I-485 is denied, you may be subject to removal proceedings as an inadmissible alien under sections 212(a) and 235(b)(1) or 240 of the Act, rather than as a deportable alien under sections 237(a) and 240 of the Act.

Unlawful Presence. Under the Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act of 1996, aliens who depart the United States after being unlawfully present in the United States for certain periods may be barred from admission, even if they obtained advance parole. If after April 1997, you were unlawfully present in the United States for more than 180 days, you may be found inadmissible under section 212(a)(9)(B)(i) of the Act when you return to the United States. If you are unlawfully present in the United States for more than 180 days but less than one year and depart voluntarily before the start of removal proceedings, you are inadmissible for three years; if you are unlawfully present for one year or more, you

WILLIAM ILHYUN JANG LAW OFFICE OF WILLIAM JANG PLLC 314 E HIGHLAND MALL BLVD #406 AUSTIN TX 78752		Notice Type: Approval Notice Class: L1A Valid from 08/20/2013 to 08/19/2016 Consulate:

The above petition and extension of stay have been approved. The status of the named foreign worker(s) in this classification is valid as indicated above. The foreign worker(s) can work for the petitioner, but only as detailed in the petition and for the period authorized. Changes in employment or training may require you to file a new Form I-129 petition. Since this employment or training authorization stems from the filing of this petition, separate employment or training authorization documentation is not required. Please contact the IRS with any questions about tax withholding.

The petitioner should keep the upper portion of this notice. The lower portion should be given to the worker. He or she should keep the right part with his or her Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record. The I-94 portion should be given to the U.S. Customs and Border Patrol when he or she leaves the United States. The left part is for his or her records. A person granted an extension of stay who leaves the U.S. must normally obtain a new visa before returning. The left part can be used in applying for the new visa. If a visa is not required, he or she should present it, along with any other required documentation, when applying for reentry in this new classification at a port of entry or pre-flight inspection station. The petitioner may also file Form I-824, Application for Action on an Approved Application or Petition, to request that we notify a consulate, port of entry, or pre-flight inspection office of this approval.

The approval of this visa petition does not in itself grant any immigration status and does not guarantee that the alien beneficiary will subsequently be found to be eligible for a visa, for admission to the United States, or for an extension, change, or adjustment of status.

THIS FORM IS NOT A VISA NOR MAY IT BE USED IN PLACE OF A VISA.

The above petition has been approved. The petition indicates that the person for whom you are petitioning is in the United States and will apply for adjustment of status. He or she should contact the local USCIS office to obtain Form I-485, Application for Permanent Residence. A copy of this notice should be submitted with the application.

If the person for whom you are petitioning decides to apply for a visa outside the United States based on this petition, the petitioner should file Form I-824, Application for Action on an Approved Application or Petition, to request that we send the petition to the Department of State National Visa Center (NVC).

The NVC processes all approved immigrant visa petitions that require consular action. The NVC also determines which consular post is the appropriate consulate to complete visa processing. It will then forward the approved petition to that consulate.

The approval of this visa petition does not in itself grant any immigration status and does not guarantee that the alien beneficiary will subsequently be found to be eligible for a visa, for admission to the United States, or for an extension, change, or adjustment of status.
