Notice Type: Approval Notice

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) has approved your Application for Provisional Unlawful Presence Waiver, Form I-601A.

USCIS has notified the Department of State of the approval of your provisional unlawful presence waiver application. This completes all USCIS action on your application. If you have any questions about your immigrant visa processing, please contact the National Visa Center (NVC) directly by e-mail using the online public inquiry form at nvc.state.gov/ask. You can also call NVC's Customer Assistance Center at (603) 334-0700, Monday through Friday from 7:00 am to midnight, Eastern Standard Time. If you have questions about your Diversity Visa processing, please contact the Kentucky Consular Center (KCC). The KCC's email address is KCCDV@state.gov and its telephone number is (606) 526-7500.

The approval of your provisional unlawful presence waiver is subject to the conditions established in Title 8, Code of Federal Regulations (8 CFR), section 212.7(e)(12). Under this regulation, the approval will not take effect until each of these requirements is met:

- You have left the United States; AND
- You have appeared at a U.S. Embassy or Consulate for an interview in connection with your application for an immigrant visa based on an approved immediate relative visa petition; AND
- A U.S. consular officer has determined, in light of the approval of your provisional unlawful presence waiver, that you are otherwise eligible for an immigrant visa based on an approved immediate relative visa petition.

NOTE: The approval of your provisional unlawful presence waiver only covers the grounds of inadmissibility for unlawful presence in the United States under section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(I) and (II) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA).

A consular officer will determine whether you are subject to any other grounds of inadmissibility and whether you are eligible for an immigrant visa at the time of your visa interview at a U.S. Embassy or consulate. If a consular officer determines that you are inadmissible for any reason other than prior unlawful presence in the United States or if a consular officer determines that you are otherwise ineligible for the immigrant visa, this provisional waiver is automatically revoked. As a result, the consular officer may refuse the immigrant visa or you may need to submit to USCIS a separate waiver application (the Form I-601, Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility), requesting a waiver for each ground of inadmissibility (if waivable under the current law) that may apply to you, including prior unlawful presence under INA section 212(a)(9)(B).

Limitation of Approved Provisional Unlawful Presence Waivers

Approval of your provisional unlawful presence waiver DOES NOT:

- Address any other grounds of inadmissibility besides unlawful presence; for example criminal grounds, fraud, or prior removals.
- Change the requirement that you must depart the United States to obtain an immigrant visa at a U.S. Embassy or consulate abroad.
- Give you any legal immigration status or allow you to obtain a legal status in the United States.
- Protect you from removal proceedings or stay the execution of a final order of removal.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.

- Allow you to work in the United States.
- Guarantee that you will be issued an immigrant visa by the Department of State.
- Guarantee your admission to the United States by U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP).
- Authorize parole or advance parole to return to the United States without an immigrant visa.

NOTE: If you depart the United States and enter or attempt to reenter without being inspected and admitted, or paroled, your approved provisional unlawful presence waiver will become invalid.

NOTICE**

I-601A Applicants in Removal Proceedings

If you are in removal proceedings, obtain a termination or dismissal order from EOIR. If you are in removal proceedings and USCIS approves your Form I-601A, it is important that you seek an order from EOIR that terminates or dismisses your removal proceedings before you leave the United States. Leaving the United States before your removal proceedings are terminated or dismissed may delay processing of your immigrant visa based on another ground of inadmissibility. Leaving the United States before your removal proceedings are terminated or dismissed may also result in the automatic revocation of your approved provisional unlawful presence waiver. Visit the USCIS Web site at www.uscis.gov/provisionalwaiver for information about how to seek termination or dismissal of your removal proceedings before you depart the United States.

You and/or your legal representative should contact the relevant U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) Office of the Chief Counsel to make arrangements to have your removal proceedings dismissed. A list of ICE Chief Counsel phone numbers is available on the internet at: <http://www.ice.gov/contact/opla/>. When you contact ICE, please have a copy of this approval notice available for ICE's review.

LAW OFFICE OF WILLIAM JANG

Notice Type: Approval Notice
Class: C09P
Valid from 03/17/2017 to 03/16/2018

We have approved your application for employment authorization and advance parole based on your pending Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status. We will send your Employment Authorization Document (also known as an EAD card or Form I-766) to you separately. The EAD card will have an I-512 endorsement on it, which indicates that you have been approved for advance parole.

Your EAD card is proof that you are allowed to work in the United States. Show the card to your employer to verify your authorization to work during the dates on the card. You cannot use this approval notice as proof of your employment authorization.

When you receive your EAD card, please check that all the information on the card is correct. If you need to change any information on the card, please mail all of the following to the office listed below:

- A letter explaining what information needs to be corrected,
- Your EAD card,
- A photocopy of this notice, and
- Evidence to show what the correct information should be. For example, if you need to correct your name, submit a copy of your birth certificate or official name change.

Advanced Parole

The I-512 endorsement on your EAD card is proof that, while your Form I-485 is pending, you may travel abroad without abandoning your Form I-485.

Show your unexpired EAD card with the I-512 endorsement to the ship or airline, and it can let you on board to travel to the United States. As long as your EAD card has not expired, you may use it multiple times to request parole into the United States. U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) can parole you into the U.S. for up to one (1) year.

Before you leave the United States, please note the following information:

- Parole into the United States is not guaranteed. In all cases, a CBP officer must still inspect you at a port of entry to determine whether you are eligible to come into the United States according to the terms of this advance parole. Even though USCIS approved your advance parole, CBP may still refuse to parole you into the United States.
- Parole into the United States is not an "admission" into the U.S. If we deny your Form I-485, you may be subject to removal proceedings for being inadmissible to the U.S.
- Unlawful Presence. If you leave the United States after being unlawfully present in the United States, you may be barred from admission even if you obtained advance parole. If you were unlawfully present in the United States for more than 180 days but less than one year and you leave the U.S. voluntarily before the start of removal proceedings, you are inadmissible for three years; if you were unlawfully present for one year or more, you are inadmissible for ten years.

If you have concerns about how traveling abroad with your EAD card may affect your legal rights, admissibility, or waivers, you should contact an immigration attorney or an immigrant assistance organization accredited by the Board of Immigration Appeals before making foreign travel plans.

If You Have a Pending Form I-485

If you have a pending or approved Form I-140 and a pending Form I-485, you may request to change employers if your Form I-485 has been pending for at least 180 days. In order to do so, you need to submit documentation about your new job offer. For more information on how to request a change of employers and what information you must submit, please visit the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov.

If your EAD card expires before we make a final decision on your Form I-485, you may apply for a new EAD card.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.

We have approved your application for an Advanced Parole Document. Your travel document will be mailed to you separately and will show the validity of the document and any travel conditions.

How to Use Your Advance Parole Document

You should take your passport and the Advance Parole Document with you when you leave the U.S. You cannot use the Advance Parole Document in place of your passport. When you return to the U.S., present the Advance Parole Document to the U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) officer who inspects you at the port-of-entry.

Before You Leave the United States

Please note the following information:

- Parole into the United States is not guaranteed. In all cases, a CBP officer must still inspect you at a port of entry to determine whether you are eligible to come into the United States according to the terms of this advance parole. The above petition has been approved. The petition indicates that the person for whom you are petitioning is in the United States and will apply for adjustment of status. He or she should contact the local USCIS office to obtain Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status. A copy of this notice should be submitted with the application, with appropriate fee, to this Service Center. Additional information about eligibility for adjustment of status may be obtained from the local USCIS office serving the area where he or she lives, or by calling 1-800-375-5283.

If the person for whom you are petitioning decides to apply for a visa outside the United States based upon this petition, the petitioner should file Form I-824, Application for Action on an Approved Application or Petition, to request that we send the petition to the Department of State National Visa Center (NVC).

The NVC processes all approved immigrant visa petitions that require consular action. The NVC also determines which consular post is the appropriate consulate to complete visa processing. It will then forward the approved petition to that consulate.

The approval of this visa petition does not in itself grant any immigration status and does not guarantee that the alien beneficiary will subsequently be found to be eligible for a visa, for admission to the United States, or for an extension, change, or adjustment of status.

Notice Type: Approval Notice
Valid from 03/27/2017 to 03/26/2018

We have approved your application for an Advanced Parole Document. Your travel document will be mailed to you separately and will show the validity of the document and any travel conditions.

How to Use Your Advance Parole Document

You should take your passport and the Advance Parole Document with you when you leave the U.S. You cannot use the Advance Parole Document in place of your passport. When you return to the U.S., present the Advance Parole Document to the U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) officer who inspects you at the port-of-entry.

Before You Leave the United States

Please note the following information:

- Parole into the United States is not guaranteed. In all cases, a CBP officer must still inspect you at a port of entry to determine whether you are eligible to come into the United States according to the terms of this advance parole. Even though USCIS approved your advance parole, CBP may still refuse to parole you into the United States.
- Parole into the United States is not an "admission" into the U.S. If you have a pending Form I-485 and we deny it, you may be subject to removal proceedings for being inadmissible to the U.S.
- Unlawful Presence. If you leave the United States after being unlawfully present in the United States, you may be barred from admission even if you obtained advance parole. If you were unlawfully present in the United States for more than 180 days but less than one year and you leave the U.S. voluntarily before the start of removal proceedings, you are inadmissible for three years; if you were unlawfully present for one year or more, you are inadmissible for ten years.

THIS FORM IS NOT A VISA AND MAY NOT BE USED IN PLACE OF A VISA.

NOTICE: Although this application or petition has been approved, USCIS and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security reserve the right to verify this information before and/or after making a decision on your case so we can ensure that you have complied with applicable laws, rules, regulations, and other legal authorities. We may review public information and records, contact others by mail, the internet or phone, conduct site inspections of businesses and residences, or use other methods of verification. We will use the information obtained to determine whether you are eligible for the benefit you seek. If we find any derogatory information, we will follow the law in determining whether to provide you (and the legal representative listed on your Form G-28, if you submitted one) an opportunity to address that information before we make a formal decision on your case or start proceedings.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.

We have approved your application for employment authorization and advance parole based on your pending Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status. We will send your Employment Authorization Document (also known as an EAD card or Form I-766) to you separately. The EAD card will have an I-512 endorsement on it, which indicates that you have been approved for advance parole.

Your EAD card is proof that you are allowed to work in the United States. Show the card to your employer to verify your authorization to work during the dates on the card. You cannot use this approval notice as proof of your employment authorization.

When you receive your EAD card, please check that all the information on the card is correct. If you need to change any information on the card, please mail all of the following to the office listed below:

- A letter explaining what information needs to be corrected,
- Your EAD card,
- A photocopy of this notice, and
- Evidence to show what the correct information should be. For example, if you need to correct your name, submit a copy of your birth certificate or official name change.

Advanced Parole

The I-512 endorsement on your EAD card is proof that, while your Form I-485 is pending, you may travel abroad without abandoning your Form I-485.

Show your unexpired EAD card with the I-512 endorsement to the ship or airline, and it can let you on board to travel to the United States. As long as your EAD card has not expired, you may use it multiple times to request parole into the United States. U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) can parole you into the U.S. for up to one (1) year.

Before you leave the United States, please note the following information:

- Parole into the United States is not guaranteed. In all cases, a CBP officer must still inspect you at a port of entry to determine whether you are eligible to come into the United States according to the terms of this advance parole. Even though USCIS approved your advance parole, CBP may still refuse to parole you into the United States.
- Parole into the United States is not an "admission" into the U.S. If we deny your Form I-485, you may be subject to removal proceedings for being inadmissible to the U.S.
- Unlawful Presence. If you leave the United States after being unlawfully present in the United States, you may be barred from admission even if you obtained advance parole. If you were unlawfully present in the United States for more than 180 days but less than one year and you leave the U.S. voluntarily before the start of removal proceedings, you are inadmissible for three years; if you were unlawfully present for one year or more, you are inadmissible for ten years.

If you have concerns about how traveling abroad with your EAD card may affect your legal rights, admissibility, or waivers, you should contact an immigration attorney or an immigrant assistance organization accredited by the Board of Immigration Appeals before making foreign travel plans.

If You Have a Pending Form I-485

If you have a pending or approved Form I-140 and a pending Form I-485, you may request to change employers if your Form I-485 has been pending for at least 180 days. In order to do so, you need to submit documentation about your new job offer. For more information on how to request a change of employers and what information you must submit, please visit the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov.

If your EAD card expires before we make a final decision on your Form I-485, you may apply for a new EAD card.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.

[REDACTED]		CASE TYPE I485 APPLICATION TO REGISTER PERMANENT RESIDENCE OR ADJUST STATUS
RECEIPT DATE November 14, 2016	PRIORITY DATE	APPLICANT [REDACTED]
NOTICE DATE March 31, 2017	PAGE 1 of 1
WILLIAM ILHYUN JANG LAW OFFICE OF WILLIAM JANG 314 E HIGHLAND MALL BLVD STE 406 AUSTIN TX 78752		Notice Type: Approval Notice Section: Adjustment as direct beneficiary of immigrant petition COA: CR6

WELCOME TO THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

This is to notify you that your application for permanent residence has been approved. It is with great pleasure that we welcome you to permanent resident status in the United States.

At the top of this notice you will see a very important number. It is your USCIS A# (A-number). This is your permanent resident account and file number. This permanent account number is very important to you. You will need it whenever you contact us.

We will soon mail you a new Permanent Resident Card. You should receive it within the next 3 weeks. You can use it to show your new status. When you receive your card you must carry it with you at all times if you are 18 or older. It is the law.

Please call us at (800) 375-5283 if any of the information about you shown above is incorrect, if you move before you receive your card, or if you don't receive your card within the next 3 weeks. If you call us, please have your A# and also the receipt number shown above available. The receipt number is a tracking number for your application.

Please read the notice that comes with your card. It will have important information about your card, about your status and responsibilities, and about permanent resident services available to you.

Your new card will expire two years from when you became a permanent resident. By law your resident status is conditional, and you must apply to remove those conditions before your card expires. We recommend you apply several months before your card expires. When the time comes and you need filing information, or an application, or if you ever have other questions about permanent resident services available to you, just call our National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283 or visit the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov. (If you are hearing impaired, the NCSC's TDD number is 1-800-767-1833.) The best days to call the NCSC are Tuesday through Friday.

Once again, welcome to the United States and congratulations on your permanent resident status.

THIS FORM IS NOT A VISA AND MAY NOT BE USED IN PLACE OF A VISA.

NOTICE: Although this application/petition has been approved, USCIS and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security reserve the right to verify the information submitted in this application, petition and/or supporting documentation to ensure conformity with applicable laws, rules, regulations, and other authorities. Methods used for verifying information may include, but are not limited to, the review of public information and records, contact by correspondence, the internet, or telephone, and site inspections of businesses and residences. Information obtained during the course of verification will be used to determine whether revocation, rescission, and/or removal proceedings are appropriate. Applicants, petitioners, and representatives of record will be provided an opportunity to address derogatory information before any formal proceeding is initiated.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.

NOTICE: Although this application or petition has been approved, USCIS and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security reserve the right to verify this information before and/or after making a decision on your case so we can ensure that you have complied with applicable laws, rules, regulations, and other legal authorities. We may review public information and records, contact others by mail, the internet or phone, conduct site inspections of businesses and residences, or use other methods of verification. We will use the information obtained to determine whether you are eligible for the benefit you seek. If we find any derogatory information, we will follow the law in determining whether to provide you (and the legal representative listed on your Form G-28, if you submitted one) an opportunity to address that information before we make a formal decision on your case or start proceedings.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.

AUSTIN TX 78752

Notice Type: Approval Notice
Class: C09
Valid from 03/23/2017 to 03/22/2018

We have approved your application for employment authorization. We will send your Employment Authorization Document (EAD) (also known as an EAD card or Form I-766) to you separately.

Your EAD card is proof that you are allowed to work in the United States. Show the card to your employer to verify your authorization to work during the dates on the card. You cannot use this approval notice as proof of your employment authorization.

When you receive your EAD card, please check that all the information on the card is correct. If you need to change any information on the card, please mail all of the following to the office listed below:

- A letter explaining what information needs to be corrected,
- Your EAD card,
- A photocopy of this notice, and
- Evidence to show what the correct information should be. For example, if you need to correct your name, submit a copy of your birth certificate or official name change.

If You Have a Pending Form I-485

If you have a pending or approved Form I-140 and a pending Form I-485, you may request to change employers if your Form I-485 has been pending for at least 180 days. In order to do so, you need to submit documentation about your new job offer. For more information on how to request a change of employers and what information you must submit, please visit the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov.

If your EAD card expires before we make a final decision on your Form I-485, you may apply for a new EAD card.
