WILLIAM ILHYUN JANG LAW OFFICE OF WILLIAM JANG PLLC 314 E HIGHLAND MALL BLVD #406 AUSTIN TX 78752		Notice Type: Approval Notice Class: H2B Valid from 03/01/2012 to 11/30/2012 Consulate: MONTERREY

The above petition has been approved, and notification has been sent to the listed consulate. You may also send the tear-off bottom part of this notice to the worker(s) to show the approval. Please contact the consulate with any questions about visa issuance. THIS FORM IS NOT A VISA AND MAY NOT BE USED IN PLACE OF A VISA.

Petition approval does not authorize employment or training. When the workers are granted status upon admission to the United States, they can then work for the petitioner, but only as detailed in the petition and for the period authorized. Please contact the IRS with any questions about tax withholding.

If circumstances change, the petitioner can file Form I-824 to have us notify another consulate of this approval. If any of the workers are already in the U.S. the petitioner can file a new Form I-129 to seek to change or extend their status based on this petition. Changes in employment or training may also require a new petition. Include a copy of this notice with any other required documentation.

If any of the worker(s) included in this petition do not actually enter the United States, and substitutions of different workers are not made, the petitioner must notify this office so the allocated nonimmigrant visa numbers can be re-used.

The approval of this visa petition does not in itself grant any immigration status and does not guarantee that the alien beneficiary will subsequently be found to be eligible for a visa, for admission to the United States, or for an extension, change, or adjustment of status.

Your application for employment authorization and advance parole has been approved. The form I-766, Employment Authorization Document with I-512 endorsement, will be sent to you separately. The Form I-766 with I-512 endorsement is issued to you, as a matter of USCIS discretion, on the basis of your pending application for adjustment of status, Form I-485.

Please read this notice carefully, as it provides important information concerning use of the Form I-766 with I-512 endorsement.

The Form I-766 with I-512 endorsement is valid until the date specified on the form. If the Form I-766 expires before there is a final decision on your Form I-485, you may file for a new Form I-766.

NOTICE- READ BEFORE YOU TRAVEL ABROAD

Parole into the United States is not guaranteed. The fact that USCIS approved your application for advance parole does not prevent the Department of Homeland Security, in the exercise of discretion, from refusing to parole you into the United States, if the Department determines that parole no longer serves the public interest of the United States.

Parole into the United States is not an "admission." If your Form I-485 is denied, you may be subject to removal proceedings as an inadmissible alien under sections 212(a) and 235(b)(1) or 240 of the Act, rather than as a deportable alien under sections 237(a) and 240 of the Act.

Unlawful Presence. Under the Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act of 1996, aliens who depart the United States after being unlawfully present in the United States for certain periods may be barred from admission, even if they obtained advance parole. If after April 1997, you were unlawfully present in the United States for more than 180 days, you may be found inadmissible under section 212(a)(9)(B)(i) of the Act when you return to the United States. Presentation of the Form I-766 with I-512 endorsement will authorize a transportation line to accept you on board for travel to the United States without liability under section 273 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), provided that you arrive in the United States on or before the expiration date shown on the Form I-766.

The Form I-766 with I-512 endorsement is valid for multiple applications for parole into the United States until the Form I-766 expires. Each parole period shall not exceed one year from the date of the parole at the port of entry.

NOTICE- READ BEFORE YOU TRAVEL ABROAD

Parole into the United States is not guaranteed. In all cases, you are still subject to immigration inspection at a port of entry to determine whether you are eligible to come into the United States via the terms of this advance parole. The fact that USCIS approved your application for advance parole does not prevent the Department of Homeland Security, in the exercise of discretion, from refusing to parole you into the United States; if the Department determines that parole no longer serves the public interest of the United States.

Parole into the United States is not an "admission." If your Form I-485 is denied, you may be subject to removal proceedings as an inadmissible alien under sections 212(a) and 235(b)(1) or 240 of the Act, rather than as a deportable alien under sections 237(a) and 240 of the Act.

Unlawful Presence. Under the Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act of 1996, aliens who depart the United States after being unlawfully present in the United States for certain periods may be barred from admission, even if they obtained advance parole. If after April 1997, you were unlawfully present in the United States for more than 180 days, you may be found inadmissible under section 212(a)(9)(B)(i) of the Act when you return to the United States. If you are unlawfully present in the United States for more than 180 days but less than one year and depart voluntarily before the start of removal proceedings, you are inadmissible for three years; if you are unlawfully present for one year or more, you
