RECEIPT DATE April 16, 2012	PRIORITY DATE	APPLICANT [REDACTED]
NOTICE DATE May 9, 2012	PAGE 1 of 1
WILLIAM ILHYUN JANG LAW OFFICE OF WILLIAM JANG PLLC 314 E HIGHLAND MALL BLVD STE 406 AUSTIN TX 78752		Notice Type: Approval Notice

The Department of State, based upon a "No Objection" statement from the government of the applicant's nationality, has recommended that the applicant and any members of his or her immediate family be granted a waiver of the two-year foreign residence requirement of Section 212(e) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended. This recommendation only refers to the two-year foreign residence obligation which was incurred based on the applicant's current or prior nonimmigrant status as a J-1 Exchange Alien.

Accordingly, upon consideration of the evidence of record, and on the basis of the favorable recommendation of the Department of State, the applicant, and any members of the applicant's immediate family who have become subject to the two-year foreign residence requirement solely based on their relationship to the applicant, are hereby granted a waiver of the two-year foreign residence requirement of Section 212(e) of the Act.

Please note that if any member of the applicant's immediate family has incurred an obligation to fulfill the two-year foreign residence requirement of Section 212(e) of the Act based on his or her own current or prior nonimmigrant status as a J-1 Exchange Alien, that family member will need to request a separate waiver in his or her own behalf to remove that obligation.

This completes our action on this application. The back of this form contains additional general information. If you have any further questions, please call your local Immigration office.

Subject: Finding of the two-year foreign residence requirement of Section 212(e)

Dear Mr. Jang:

This is in response to a request for an advisory opinion as to whether the above-referenced individual is subject to the two-year foreign residence requirement of Section 212(e) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended.

The Department has determined that the exchange visitor is not subject to the requirement, based on the following data:

DS-2019 (IAP-66): [REDACTED] 9836

Program Numbers: [REDACTED] 739

It appears there were no government funds involved in the program and the Skills List is not applicable in this case, therefore it is not necessary to process a waiver on the exchange visitor's behalf.

Should the exchange visitor wish to request a change in visa status, an application may be made directly to the District Office of the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services having jurisdiction over the exchange visitor's temporary place of residence in the United States.

We hope this information is helpful.

Sincerely,

ANN KAVALOU
Waiver Review Division

RECEIPT DATE March 28, 2012	PRIORITY DATE	APPLICANT [REDACTED]
NOTICE DATE May 24, 2012	PAGE 1 of 2
WILLIAM ILHYUN JANG 314 E HIGHLAND MALL BLVD 406 AUSTIN TX 78752		Notice Type: Approval Notice Class: C09P Valid from 05/17/2012 to 05/16/2013

Your application for employment authorization and advance parole has been approved. The form I-766, Employment Authorization Document with I-512 endorsement, will be sent to you separately. The Form I-766 with I-512 endorsement is issued to you, as a matter of USCIS discretion, on the basis of your pending application for adjustment of status, Form I-485.

Please read this notice carefully, as it provides important information concerning use of the Form I-766 with I-512 endorsement.

The Form I-766 with I-512 endorsement is valid until the date specified on the form. If the Form I-766 expires before there is a final decision on your Form I-485, you may file for a new Form I-766.

If any information on the card is incorrect, please write the office listed below. Include your Form I-766, a photocopy of this notice, and evidence to support the necessary correction.

EVIDENCE OF EMPLOYMENT AUTHORIZATION: At any time before the expiration date shown on the Form I-766, you may present the Form I-766 to any employer as evidence that you are authorized to accept employment. 8 CFR 274a.2(b)(1)(v)(A)(4).

EVIDENCE OF ADVANCE PAROLE: The Form I-766 with I-512 endorsement is also evidence that, while your Form I-485 remains pending, you may travel abroad without abandoning your Form I-485. 8 CFR 245.2(a)(4)(ii)(B).

Presentation of the Form I-766 with I-512 endorsement will authorize a transportation line to accept you on board for travel to the United States without liability under section 273 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), provided that you arrive in the United States on or before the expiration date shown on the Form I-766.

The Form I-766 with I-512 endorsement is valid for multiple applications for parole into the United States until the Form I-766 expires. Each parole period shall not exceed one year from the date of the parole at the port of entry.

NOTICE- READ BEFORE YOU TRAVEL ABROAD

Parole into the United States is not guaranteed. In all cases, you are still subject to immigration inspection at a port of entry to determine whether you are eligible to come into the United States via the terms of this advance parole. The fact that USCIS approved your application for advance parole does not prevent the Department of Homeland Security, in the exercise of discretion, from refusing to parole you into the United States, if the Department determines that parole no longer serves the public interest of the United States.

Parole into the United States is not an "admission." If your Form I-485 is denied, you may be subject to removal proceedings as an inadmissible alien under sections 212(a) and 235(b)(1) or 240 of the Act, rather than as a deportable alien under sections 237(a) and 240 of the Act.

Unlawful Presence. Under the Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act of 1996, aliens who depart the United States after being unlawfully present in the United States for certain periods may be barred from admission, even if they obtained advance parole. If after April 1997, you were unlawfully present in the United States for more than 180 days, you may be found inadmissible under section 212(a)(9)(B)(i) of the Act when you return to the United States. If you are unlawfully present in the United States for more than 180 days but less than one year and depart voluntarily before the start of removal proceedings, you are inadmissible for three years; if you are unlawfully present for one year or more, you

The above petition has been approved. The petition indicates that the person for whom you are petitioning is in the United States and will apply for adjustment of status. He or she should contact the local USCIS office to obtain Form I-485, Application for Permanent Residence. A copy of this notice should be submitted with the application.

If the person for whom you are petitioning decides to apply for a visa outside the United States based on this petition, the petitioner should file Form I-824, Application for Action on an Approved Application or Petition, to request that we send the petition to the Department of State National Visa Center (NVC).

The NVC processes all approved immigrant visa petitions that require consular action. The NVC also determines which consular post is the appropriate consulate to complete visa processing. It will then forward the approved petition to that consulate.

The approval of this visa petition does not in itself grant any immigration status and does not guarantee that the alien beneficiary will subsequently be found to be eligible for a visa, for admission to the United States, or for an extension, change, or adjustment of status.

THIS FORM IS NOT A VISA NOR MAY IT BE USED IN PLACE OF A VISA.
